Convention on jurisdictional immunities of States and their property

Draft resolution submitted by the coordinating delegation

Convention on jurisdictional immunities of States and their property

The General Assembly,

Taking note of the set of draft articles on jurisdictional immunities of States and their property[1] adopted by the International Law Commission at its forty-third session, as well as its recommendation that an international conference of plenipotentiaries be convened to examine the draft articles and to conclude a convention on the subject,[2]

Recalling that, in its resolution 49/61 of 9 December 1994, it accepted the recommendation of the International Law Commission,

Recalling also that, in its resolution 52/151 of 15 December 1997, it decided to consider the subject again at its fifty-third session with a view to the establishment of a working group at its fifty-fourth session,

Reaffirming that the codification and progressive development of international law contributes to the implementation of the purposes and principles set forth in Articles 1 and 2 of the Charter of the United Nations,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General,[3]

1. Decides to establish a working group open to States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies at its fifty-fourth session to consider outstanding substantive issues related to the draft articles on jurisdictional immunities of States and their property adopted by the International Law Commission, taking into account the recent developments of State practice and legislation and any other factors related to this issue since the adoption of the draft articles, as well as the comments submitted by States in accordance with paragraph 2 of resolution 49/61 and paragraph 2 of resolution 52/151, and to consider whether there are any issues identified by the working group upon which it would be useful to seek further comments and recommendations of the International Law Commission;

2. Invites the International Law Commission to present any preliminary comments it may have regarding outstanding substantive issues related to the draft articles, by 31 August 1999, in the light of the results of the informal consultations held pursuant to General Assembly decision 48/413 and taking into account the recent developments of State practice and other factors related to this issue since the adoption of the draft articles, in order to facilitate the task of the working group;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its fifty-fourth session the item entitled "Convention on jurisdictional immunities of States and their property".
